2022-2023 Season

A Breath of Fresh Air

The Liar

A Madcap Farce by David Ives
Adapted from Le Menteur by Pierre Corneille
October 7th – 23rd, 2022
Sponsored by F&M Community Bank

A sweet, small-town boy with big ambition has but one single flaw; he can't tell the truth. He hires a servant who can't tell a lie, falls for a girl engaged to his best friend, and...things get complicated. Misunderstandings and breathtakingly intricate lies abound in this tour-de-force comedy of errors.

The Last Night of Ballyhoo

A Charming Holiday Comedy by Alfred Uhry
November 25th – December 11th, 2022
Sponsored by Wealth Enhancement Group

It's December 1939, in Georgia. Atlanta's Jewish families are most concerned with who is going to Ballyhoo, the social event of the season. Especially concerned is the Freitag family, who struggle to find their place in America, and with each other, in this charming holiday comedy about family, identity and celebration.

The Haunting of Hill House

A Spine-Tingling Thriller by F. Andrew Leslie
Adapted from the novel by Shirley Jackson
January 20th – 29th, 2023

The isolation of the sinister Hill House is broken by the arrival of an investigator of supernatural phenomena and five others. As they all struggle to hide their mounting fears, terrible secrets about Hill House bubble to the surface in this hair-raising, spine-tingling thriller.

Master Class

A Sleek Comedy by Terrance McNally
March 3rd – 19th, 2023

Maria Callas is teaching a master class in front of an audience: us. She's glamorous, commanding, larger than life—and drop-dead funny. She glories in her own career, dabbles in opera gossip, and flat-out seduces the audience in this sleek comedy about the power, and price of, being an artist in an unforgiving world.

Spring Awakening

A Coming-of-Age Rock Musical by Steven Sater and Duncan Sheik
April 21st – May 7th, 2023

When you're a teenager in 1891 Germany, grown-ups hold all the cards. Headstrong Melchior, naive Wendla and anxious Moritz struggle to live up to the stringent expectations of society. The trio and their classmates travel the fraught and rocky path of adolescence, discovering their bodies, their minds and themselves along the way in this coming-of-age Tony-winning musical you won't ever forget.

A Raisin in the Sun

A Searing Drama by Lorraine Hansberry
June 9th – 25th, 2023

Set on Chicago's South Side, this American classic revolves around the divergent dreams within three generations of the Younger family. When the family patriarch's life insurance money comes through, everyone has a different idea about what to do with the money. Their heroic struggle to retain dignity in a harsh and changing world takes center stage in this searing drama of hope and inspiration.

I and You

A Poignant Comedy by Lauren Gunderson
July 27th – August 6th, 2023

One afternoon, Anthony arrives unexpectedly at Caroline's door bearing an urgent assignment. Homebound due to illness, Caroline hasn't been to school in months. As these two let down their guards and share their secrets, this seemingly mundane poetry project unlocks a much deeper mystery that has brought them together in this sweet, moving comedy.
